Sunday April 23rd MACC Castle Theater

8:00 pm - Cindy Sheehan - free admission

Cindy Sheehan, outspoken mother of slain soldier, Casey Sheehan, and a leading spokesperson for withdrawing U.S. troops from Iraq will speak on Sunday, April 23, at 8:00 pm, followed by a question and answer session. Admission is free to hear Cindy, with a calabash for donations to defray costs and support Gold Star Families for Peace.

Late last summer Cindy travelled to Bush's Crawford, Texas ranch to demand that the President meet with her to explain why we invaded Iraq and thereby why her son was killed. When Bush refused, she set up camp along the road leading to his ranch. Over the next month, thousands of people joined Cindy at "Camp Casey." Her courageous action has inspired millions in the U.S. and around the world.

Cindy is the nation's leading spokesperson for withdrawing U.S. troops from Iraq as quickly as possible. Her fresh, intelligent clarity has revitalized and galvanized the anti-war movement. The Rev. Jesse Jackson has called her, "a witness in the great tradition of Rosa Parks, Fannie Lou Hamer, and Harriet Tubman."

Sir! No Sir!
Doors will open for Cindy Sheehan's talk at 7:45, following the Maui Film Festival's screening of Sir! No Sir!, an award-winning documentary that tells the little-known story of the rebellion of thousands of US soldiers against the Vietnam War in the 1960's. Admission to the evening's Maui Film Festival screening will be either by one MFF Passport "click" or $10 per adult ticket. The Maui Film Festival is also offering complimentary admission to the film for students 18 and under.

"The courage of Cindy Sheehan and all of the families and supporters at Camp Casey are the catalysts that will cause this war to end and will bring our soldiers home. This is a senseless war, and I think America knows that now." — Congresswoman Maxine Waters
