HIJACKING CATASTROPHE

9/11, Fear & the Selling of American Empire
Narrated by Julian Bond

“Hijacking Catastrophe” examines how a radical fringe of the Republican Party used the trauma of the 9/11 terror attacks to advance a pre-existing agenda to radically transform American foreign policy while rolling back civil liberties and social programs at home. The documentary places the Bush Administration’s misleading justifications for war in Iraq within the larger context of a two-decade struggle by neoconservatives to dramatically increase military spending in the wake of the Cold War, and to expand American power globally by means of military force. It also examines the political strategies that have been used to sell this ideological vision to the American people.

Tompaine.com has called it, “One of the best pieces of journalism of recent years.”

The Washington Post called this documentary, “Powerful, driving home even deeper the message of ‘Fahrenheit 9/11’ .”

The New York Daily News named it “The best of the Bush documentaries.”
