

THE IRON WALL

DIRECTED BY MOHAMMED ALATAR

In 1923, Vladimir Jabotinsky – father of the Zionist right – wrote:

“Zionist colonization... can proceed and develop only under the protection of a power that is independent of the native population – behind an IRON WALL, which the native population cannot breach.”

These words were to become the official and unspoken policy of the Zionist movement and, later, the State of Israel. Colonies, often referred to as “settlements,” were used to solidify the Zionist foothold throughout historic Palestine.

Following the 1967 occupation of the West Bank and Gaza, more than 200 settlements and outposts have been built in these territories, in violation of international law. The Iron Wall exposes this phenomenon and follows the timeline, size, and population of the settlements, reveals how their construction has been a cornerstone of Israeli policy, and demonstrates how the Wall secures them as permanent and irreversible facts on the ground.

This documentary warns that a contiguous and viable Palestinian state is becoming no longer possible, and that the chances for a peaceful resolution of the conflict are slipping away.
