

Walking for Peace: North to South Korea

A Talk by Col. (Ret.) Ann Wright

Photo by Niana Liu

For more information: www.womencrossdmz.org

Since the Korean war ended in 1954 without an armistice, many Korean families have been separated for six decades. Last month, 30 prominent women peace activists from 15 countries including Colonel (Ret.) Ann Wright walked from North to South Korea across the DMZ calling for a peace accord. Thousands of North and South Korean women participated in peace walks and conferences.

Come hear Ann Wright speak about the experience.

Tuesday, June 16, 6:00 pm
Maui Arts & Cultural Center, Haynes Meeting Rm
Free Admission

Sponsored by the Maui Peace Education Foundation and Maui Peace Action
Find us at: mauipeace.org